

Coconino County ARIZONA
COUNTY RECORDER – VOTER SERVICES

Patty Hansen
County Recorder

Donna Casner
Chief Deputy

Date: October 12, 2023

For Immediate Release

For more information contact Patty Hansen, County Recorder, 928-679-7889

— Ballots Mailed for the Nov 7, 2023, Special Election —

Flagstaff, AZ. – Ballots for the Nov 7, 2023, Special Election have been mailed to all eligible registered voters. This is a ballot-by-mail election so registered voters residing in the City of Flagstaff, Sedona-Oak Creek Joint Unified School District, Ash Fork Joint Unified School District, Grand Canyon Unified School District, Pinewood Sanitary District, Williams Hospital District, and Highlands Fire District will be receiving their ballots in the next few days.

Registered voters residing in the jurisdictions listed above that have not received a ballot by Friday, October 20 should call the Coconino County Recorder’s Voter Services Division at 928-679-7860.

Voters have until 7:00 p.m. on Election Day, Nov 7, to return their voted ballots. Voters returning their voted ballots by mail should mail them no later than October 31 to ensure they arrive by the deadline. Ballots may also be dropped off at the County Recorder’s Office, 110 E Cherry Ave, Flagstaff, or at the Coconino County Voter Services Office at the Flagstaff Mall (located between JCPenney and Planet Fitness), or in a ballot drop box. Ballots may also be dropped off on Election Day at a ballot replacement site. To see the list of the locations of the ballot drop boxes or the Election Day Ballot replacement sites go to coconino.az.gov/elections .

For voting assistance, call the Recorder’s office at (928) 679-7860; or toll-free (800) 793-6181.

###